Congratulations! You just earned a badge!

The Open University (via OpenLearn) <noreply@ocw.open.ac.uk> to me

Dear Justin Von Vergara Vonvon

Congratulations! You have gained the digital badge for successfully completing Gamified Intelligent Cyber Aptitude and Skills Training (GICAST), a free non-accredited course.

When you're signed in to OpenLearn, you can manage your digital badges online from My OpenLearn. Your badge will appear under your image in your profile within your achievements section. To access the badge information you will need to click on the badge. You can also download and print your OpenLearn Statement of Participation – which displays your badge as well. See the OpenLearn FAQs for more information about badges.

Now you've gained your badge, we would appreciate a few minutes of your time to complete this short survey. We'd like to find out a bit about your experience of studying the course and what you plan to do next. We will use this information to provide better online experiences for all our learners and to share our findings with others. Participation will be completely confidential and we will not pass on your details to others.

Next steps

If this free course has inspired you to take your learning further, you might like to explore all our Free Courses on OpenLearn or find out about studying with The Open University.

If you are new to university level study you may be interested in our Access Courses.

Best wishes

The OpenLearn team

This free course was brought to you by The Open University, dedicated to delivering open educational resources to all.
